OPENING:
Hundreds of fairies work and play in every garden, wood and meadow caring for flowers and trees. They only reveal themselves to those who believe in them. So, leave your disbelief behind, and prepare to enter the secret world of the fairies.

Looking out across the grass
On a quiet pleasant night,
Seeing in the backyard
A bunch of fairy lights.

Hearing soft sweet music
Gently blowing in the air,
The fairies they were dancing
And they didn’t have a care.

Dressed in pastel colours
From their heads down to their toes,
Looking pretty in jade and marigold
And lavender and rose.

Hear them giggle and laughing,
Come and fly to Fairyland.
Clap your hands, and turn around,
And say “Alaba Kazam!”

CLOSEING
The fairies are still singing
A gentle soft sweet tune,
Telling us they had a blast
And they’d be back real soon.

See them turn and wave
With their fairy lights,
Flying away on gossamer wings
Until they’re out of sight.

Now we are leaving Fairyland
As every human must,
So clap your hands, turn around,
And sprinkle some fairy dust.

So put on your very best smile,
Don’t be sad, please don’t cry,
Just spread your wings
And let the fairy in you fly!
