WIDE GAME

Equipment Required: First Aid supplies (bandages, sling, antiseptic, bandaids), paper, pencils/pens, Morse Code/Semaphore keys, recipes and ingredients and equipment as needed below.

1. You were hiking up the Japanese Mountains and your friend slipped and has broken her left arm and has scratches down her right leg. Perform the correct first aid on a Patrol Member and ask a Leader to check it.

2. You will be going on a camp to Madagascar, a tropical island. What should you pack? Write a Patrol kit list for a camp in Madagascar.

3. You need to send a secret message to the other patrol without the Leader's knowledge. Use Morse Code or Semaphore to help you. When they send a message back, you will need to decode it.

4. You have been invited to attend a special campfire ceremony in the country you are visiting. Make up a traditional song or dance from your imaginary country.
5. You have lost your plane ticket home, you will need to bribe the pilot by making him a yummy lunch from your home country (Patrol Names reflect home countries). Cook an international dish with your patrol.

LEBANON
300gm minced beef
½ cup chopped parsley
pinch of mixed spice
1 onion finely chopped
1 teaspoon garlic
Skewers.
Combine all ingredients together in a bowl. Using wet hands, mould the mixture onto skewers. Cook until brown.

GREECE
300gm minced lamb
1 onion finely chopped
1 teaspoon garlic
2 tabs chopped mint
¼ teaspoon oregano
1 egg beaten
pinch mixed spice
Combine all ingredients together in a bowl. Form into balls and fry in frying pan until brown.

JAPAN
300gm minced chicken
¼ cup soy sauce
2 shallots, chopped
1 egg
1 tablespoon of cornflour
Combine all ingredients together in a bowl. Form into balls and fry in frying pan until brown.

ACTIVITIES

AUSTRIAN DANCE
Sung to Do-Re-Mi from Sound of Music
Formation: Partners in a circle facing each other, both hands joined, with one person facing the centre of the circle and the other facing out.
Wait 8 counts,
Count 1-4 Using the foot which is facing anti-clockwise extend the heel to the side and replace.
5-8 Repeat using opposite footwork
9-12 Do two sidesteps in an anti-clockwise direction around the circle.
11-16 Repeat in a clockwise direction
1-4 With hands still joined, swing arms sideways back and forth four times
5-8 Both turn under one of own arms to finish back to back, hands still joined.
9-16 Repeat step two to finish facing each other again. Most children know this movement as “wash the dishes, dry the dishes, turn the dishes over”.
1-16 With hands still joined, skip around on the spot for sixteen counts.

KOREA ELASTIC SKIPPING
All kinds of skipping games are very popular in Korea. Skipping with long pieces of elastic instead of ropes is popular as well. Try it for yourself, doing all your usual varieties of skipping games and rhymes. It's tricky but a lot of fun!

FRANCE SKETCH IMPRESSIONS
The game leader has one card for each player with her name on it. The leader shuffles and deals the cards, so that every player has one. Each player writes on the card a description of the person whose name is on the card. When they have finished the leader collects the cards and begins to read the description without the name. Those who think they know the name may shout it out, but the leader does not stop until the correct answer has been given. The game continues until all the cards have been read.
JAPANESE PEACE CRANES
Sadako Sasaki was a Japanese girl living in Hiroshima when the atomic bomb was dropped on Japan (August 6, 1945). In 1955, at age 11, Sadako was diagnosed with leukemia, a type of cancer caused by the atomic bomb. While in the hospital, Sadako started to fold paper cranes. In Japan, there is a belief that if you folded 1000 paper cranes, then your wish would come true. Sadako spend 14 months in the hospital, folding paper cranes with whatever paper she could get. Her wish was that she would get well again. Sadako also wished for an end to all suffering and to attain peace and healing to the victims of the world. Sadako died on October 25, 1955, she was 12 years old and had folded over 1300 paper cranes. Sadako’s friends and classmates raised money to build a memorial in honor of Sadako and other atomic bomb victims. The Hiroshima Peace Memorial was completed in 1958 and has a statue of Sadako holding a golden crane. At the base is a plaque that says:
This is our cry.
This is our prayer.
Peace in the world.
BELGIUM TABLE MAT
Use a piece of coloured or white paper and fold evenly as many times you would like the pattern to appear and so the scissors will still cut easily through the thickness. Cut shapes and patterns into the folds. Unfold and reveal patterned paper. Can be laminated or covered in clear contact to use as a place mat.

INDIAN GAME OF ELEPHANTS, MONKEYS AND PALM TREES
Participants stand in a circle and move around until the leader calls out either 'elephants', 'monkeys' or 'palm trees'. On this signal they must imitate what is being called out for:
Elephants – bend over and form trunk with arms straight and hands clasped.
Monkeys – one arm up, the other scratching an armpit
Palm Tree – both arms stretched out wide.
The last person to do the action each time is eliminated, until only one person is left.

INDONESIAN BASKET BALANCE
Indonesian women carry baskets (up to one metre high) on their heads. You will need baskets, old tennis balls and two sarongs or similar pieces of cloth. Roll the cloth up into a nest shape to fit on your head. Now transport the basket with six to nine balls in it. Have a competition to see who can get the farthest without losing the basket!

THAI ELEPHANTS
You will need: cut out cardboard elephants, a collection of colourful beads & sequins, a square of material for a saddle, braid and glue.
Children create their own ceremonial elephants by attaching their choice of gorgeous trappings to their cardboard elephants.
SOUTH AFRICAN FRIENDSHIP BOXES.
Guides in South Africa make small friendship boxes, place gifts inside them, and send them to other units. Cut out template below and use to cut shapes out of thin card. Fold along dotted lines, glue up tabs and decorate as desired.

CAMPFIRE

Hush! Fires' Burning (spoken not sung)
Hush! Let all be still...
The hum of insects
Listen to the sound of the night.
The whispers of friends
The gentle rustling of leaves
The crackle of the fire
And the dying wind.
Which calls us to sing....
The faraway lap of waves on the shore.

I'm a Girl Guide (to the tune of 'Brother John')
I'm a Girl Guide, I'm a Girl Guide
Who are you? Who are you?
Can't you tell by looking? Can't you tell by looking?
I'm one too. I'm one too!

Animal Fair
I went to the animal fair.
The birds and the beasts were there.
The big baboon by the light of the moon was combing his golden hair.
The monkey fell out of his bunk, slid down the elephant's trunk.
The elephant sneezed and fell on his knees and that was the end of Monkey, Monkey!

A Freezing Tent (to the tune of Ram, Sam, Sam)
A freezing tent, a freezing tent.
Wet blankets, wet blankets
The rain is coming down in a freezing tent.
The rain is coming down in a freezing tent
A freezing tent, a freezing tent,
Wet blankets, wet blankets
The rain is coming down in a freezing tent
Rain is coming down in a freezing tent.

Prayer for Peace
Let there be peace on Earth
And let it begin with me.
Let there be peace on Earth
And let it begin with me
Let it begin with me, Oh Lord,
Let it begin with me.

Cuckoo
Twas on a summer's evening, I walked the forest through,
When suddenly I heard it, a sweet and low cuckoo.
Cuckoo, cuckoo, cuckoo, cuckoo, cuckoo.
Cuckoo, cuckoo, cuckoo, cuckoo, cuckoo.
Mister Moon, Mister Moon, you're out too soon the sun is still in the sky.
Go back to bed and cover up your head, Wait till the night draws nigh.

Everywhere We Go
Everywhere we go, People want to know
Who we are, Where we come from
So we tell them, we are the Girl Guides
The mighty, mighty Girl Guides
We are the Girl Guides and we couldn't be prouder
If you can't hear us now then we'll shout a little louder!
Repeat louder each time, the last time through yell “You must be deaf!” instead of We'll shout a....
Sisters in Guiding
I haven't met you personally, From around the world we throng,
But one glance confirms a friend I see; Eight million people can't be wrong,
For behind the trefoil and the smiles, Guides are found in many lands,
Lies strong ideals linking hearts and minds, You're never far from a friendly smile
That banish time and miles. And willing, lending hands.

Chorus:
You are my sister in Guiding, So we travel on together
You're a friend I can confide in, Through the bright and stormy weather,
No matter if you're a different race, Striding forth in work and game,
Young or old, from some far place, We are joined by the Guiding spirit,
As sisters in Guiding we share a secret drive, The world is ne'er the same.
To make this world a better place in which to be alive.

Streets of London
Have you seen the old man In the all night cafe
In the closed-down market At a quarter past eleven,
Kicking up the paper, Same old man is sitting there on his own
with his worn out shoes? Looking at the world
In his eyes you see no pride Over the rim of his tea-cup,
And held loosely at his side Each tea last an hour
Yesterday's paper telling yesterday's news Then he wanders home alone

Chorus
So how can you tell me you're lonely,
And say for you that the sun don't shine?
Let me take you by the hand and lead you through the streets of London
I'll show you something to make you change your mind.

He's Got the Whole World
He's got the whole world in his hands
He's got the whole wide world in his hands
He's got the whole world in his hands
(last line of each verse:) He's got the whole world in his hands

other verses:
He's got you and me brother/sister...
He's got the little bitty baby...
He's got everybody here...
This Little Guiding Light of Mine
This little Guiding light of mine, I'm gonna let it shine
This little Guiding light of mine, I'm gonna let it shine
This little Guiding light of mine, I'm gonna let it shine
Let it shine, all the time, let it shine

Don't you (poof) my little light out, I'm gonna let it shine
Don't you (poof) my little light out, I'm gonna let it shine
Don't you (poof) my little light out, I'm gonna let it shine
Let it shine, all the time, let it shine

Hide it under a bush? Oh no! I'm gonna let it shine
Hide it under a bush? Oh no! I'm gonna let it shine
Hide it under a bush? Oh no! I'm gonna let it shine
Let it shine, all the time, let it shine

Take my little light around the world, I'm gonna let it shine
Take my little light around the world, I'm gonna let it shine
Take my little light around the world, I'm gonna let it shine
Let it shine, all the time, let it shine

Join Hands
Let's join hands in friendship
Today the skies are bright
Sing a song of happiness
A chorus of delight
Dance into the future
Guides from many lands
Celebrating, celebrating
As we all join hands

We receive the gift of life and the gift of choice
We can grow each one herself
Speak with her own voice
Use our hands in praying, choosing living
And know ourselves and then begin,
To know the folk we meet.

We receive the gift of life, seize the chance and live
Be prepared to lend a hand, we have so much to give
Use our hands in serving, helping and sharing,
And know the joys of caring
And loving all our lives.

Gaelic Blessing
May the road rise up to meet you.
May the wind be always at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face;
the rains fall soft upon your fields and until we meet again,
may God hold you in the palm of His hand.
May the memories we have shared
Linger on and on, Linger on and on.
